Hi brother Rod,

Hope all is well and your trip to Australia went well. Regarding the review of your works, we were able to provide the following:

---

“Preaching the Powerful Gospel.” Kevin Rutherford.

This book is well organized and well presented. For those aspiring to be effective preachers and teachers of the gospel, this book provides a very practical foundation with accuracy.

Regarding the other books:

They are well written condensed, accurate and well presented. Considering the fact that we are going to South Africa to do missionary work, both Linda and I have found these books very beneficial and assuring.

---

Thanks and God bless,

Joshua Ankih.
